Fernando Costa	Jim McCarthy
Doug Hamilton

- Route 42 Park – The Town Board and those present from Tri-Valley Little League discussed getting the new fields located at the Route 42 Park ready for spring baseball season. Supervisor Mathews and Highway Superintendent Kelly met and prepared an overview if things to finish at the new town park. The list of items were discussed. Estimates are needed in order to decide what items can be done this year and what items will need to wait. The construction of the maintenance building was discussed as this is where the main electrical service panel will be located. The discussion will continue at the February Town Board Meeting.
- Jim McCarthy and Doug Hamilton were present tonight with concerns about recent events at 8063 State Route 55. The owner was charged with several counts of animal cruelty. The Town Code Enforcement Officer has met with the owner and will be closely monitoring the situation.

ADJOURN OR RECESS

On motion by Councilman Richard Coombe Jr., seconded by Councilman Keith Zanetti, the meeting was adjourned at 10:13 pm, put to a vote and UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lisa Garigliano, Town Clerk
